

Equinor Apsheron AS

Marine Plaza Business Center,
62 Uzeyir Hajibeyli street, 16th floor,
AZ 1095 Baku, Azerbaijan
Telephone: +99412 4 977 340
Date 14 June 2019

Proposal for the Public Hearing for an Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA) study for the drilling of the Aypara-1 well in the Aypara-Dan Ulduzu-Ashrafi (ADUA) exploration area.

Equinor is considering drilling of the Aypara-1 well in the in the ADUA area. The purpose of this letter is to announce that a draft EIA document has been produced for planned drilling of the Aypara-1 well as part of Equinor's work obligation and is available for public review and comment.

The document examines the potential environmental impact of the project and describes recommended mitigation measures.

Copies of these documents have been placed at the following locations for public review:

- * M.F. Akhundov Central Public Library, 29 Khagani street
- * Scientific Library of the National Academy of Sciences, 31 H.Javid Avenue.
- * Aarhus Environmental Information Center, MENR, 100 B. Agayev Street
- * The Azerbaijan State Oil Academy library, 20 Azadlig Avenue
- * Equinor Absheron, at the reception of Marine Plaza, U. Hacibeyli Street. 62
- * Pirallahi settlement, Public Library branch 2 in the Cultural Center n.a. V. Mustafazade. S. Baghirov str. 3.
- * Oily Rocks settlement, Public Library, Oil Rocks Cultural Center
- * Chilov settlement, secondary school No 131. 1D. Kisilyov str.

Comments on the document should be addressed to Ramiz Guliyev in Equinor by the 14 July 2019.

Contact details:

Telephone: (994 12) 497 73 40/ 050 225 95 56 Email: konsekvensutredning@equinor.com

Address: Equinor Azerbaijan. Marine Plaza Business Center. 62 U. Hacibeyli street, Baku Az1010